

For immediate release

Nine Acclaimed Dance Artists Unite for Two Nights of New Work in
*Field Notes: An Evening of New Dances

Hudson Valley's veteran choreographers and performers present world premieres at the Arts Society of Kingston

KINGSTON, NY — For two nights only, nine of the Hudson Valley's most accomplished dance artists share one stage in Field Notes: An Evening of New Dances, a program of new work at the Arts Society of Kingston (ASK) 97 Broadway in Kingston's Rondout neighborhood, on Friday, November 6 & Saturday, November 7, 2026 at 7pm.

The lineup is Meg Fry, Ashley Hartka, Amii LeGendre, Sondra Loring (performing choreography by Stephen Petronio), Jack Magai, Jill Ann Schwartz, Teresa Smith, and Debra Wanner. Together they represent decades of artistry on stages in New York City, across the Hudson Valley, and throughout the Americas, Europe, and India. Each has built a distinct choreographic voice and a body of work that has helped define contemporary dance in the region and beyond.

Field Notes is the rare chance to see these artists side by side, each presenting new work shaped by years of performing, teaching, and creating. Their long history as collaborators gives the evening its depth. The result is a program that shows the full range of what contemporary dance can be, from intimate solos to ensemble work, made by artists working at the height of their craft.

After careers that have carried them around the world, these artists are presenting this work at home, for the community that has supported them.

For more information and reservations: www.fieldnotesdance.com

Contact: Sondra Loring at sondraloring19@gmail.com

Field Notes: An Evening of New Dances

Friday, November 6 & Saturday, November 7, 2026 at 7pm

Tickets: $25; doors open at 6:30

Arts Society of Kingston (A.S.K.), 97 Broadway, Kingston

Reservations: Field Notes reservations

###